Funny Figures.

The official returns of the vote at the late elections show some rather curious results. For instance Bartlett received all told, only 84,970 votes and was elected, while Tarpey received 92,476 votes and was defeated. Harold for State Treasurer received 91,572 votes and was elected, while Moulder on the same ticket, received 94,250 votes and defeated. Sullivan, for Judge, received 92,741 votes and was defeated, while several of the candidates on the same ticket were elected by a smaller vote. Moulder's vote was the second largest of any candidate, except for the judiciary, on the Democratic State ticket, and yet Moulder is defeated while most of his Democratic associates are elected. These otherwise unaccountable discrepancies are due to the fluctuating of the third party voters.

Lost.

On the evening of January 8th, between town and Mr. Alexander's place on the Carson road, a church music book, entitled Seventh-day Adventist Hymn and Tune book. It is bound in Morocco, with gilt edges. Valued as a present. Finder please leave at postoffice for Mrs. Anna Gillson. Jan14

Its First Arrival.

The first case of pleuro-pneumonia was imported into America in 1843. That primal cause of all this kind misery was an English cow landed at New York harbor, and stabled hard by South ferry. From there the disease spread eastward to the stables of Brooklyn, Jamaica, Roslyn, Cutchogue, and other places along Long Island sound; also to the stables in New Jersey, and Westchester county. For more than 40 years there have been infected "herds" in the near vicinity of New York City. A few years ago the disease penetrated Massachusetts.

Both Good Men.

Frank Bell has made a most excellent officer and will leave the institution with such honor as but few controllers of the prison have earned, and he will be succeeded by one of the best men the State contains. The Carson Tribune heartily congratulates the outgoing Warden on the record he has made, and tenders the same to the gentleman succeeding him, firmly believing that the incoming Frank will do all in his power to keep up the present excellent status of the Nevada State Prison, made by the outgoing Frank.

Keno Prizes.

Fifty dollars; first five balls if makes a keno on first keno; $25 for five keno in succession on one card; $20 for first four balls if it makes a keno; $5 for three keno in succession on one card. All prizes paid in cash. HOWARD & O'NEILL. d23u

After the Middlemen.

The Range Journal says: Cattlemen are slow to anger and very reluctant to begin a fight, but when once in, they are stayers from Stayersville. They have got it into their heads at last that the Chicago ring must be squelched, and if there is any person who doubts their being in earnest, let him come to the convention on the 8th of February. They are coming from all sections of the range country, and will have blood in their eyes.

A Trundle-bed Pair.

A youthful San Francisco couple has arrived at Atlanta. Sandy Lockmore and his wife are respectively seventeen and fifteen years old and were married three years ago. They were engaged for two years before their marriage. Their domestic life is happy, and they are untroubled by family skeletons in the way of earlier lovers.

The Very Best.

For the very best photographs go to Murray Dunham's new photo parlors. Fine street, Reno, Nev. This establishment is all on the ground floor; no stairs to climb. MURRAY DUNHAM. Jan14

Only His Shads.

A gentleman called at the residence of Professor Snore, of the University of Texas, after dark. Hatilda Snowball was standing at the gate.

"Is the Professor in?"
"No, sah."
"But," said the gentleman, pointing to the window blind on which the silhouette of the Professor was faintly portrayed, "there he is now."
"No, sah, dat's not him; dat's nuffin but his shadder."

Davis' explanation of the shooting is almost as thin as the preserves in the pie described in the following incident:

"Ma," said young impudence at breakfast this morning, "this is the last pie you made, ain't it?" "Yes, my son, why?" "I guess you had to paint the stuffing in with a brush. It's awful thin."

What is the difference between a young girl and an old hat? Merely one of them—one has feeling and the other has felt.

The red, gilt and copper gallons are very effective on black or brown plush skirts.

THE NO FENCE QUESTION.

We will give the Carson Union credit, perhaps unjustly, for being mistaken instead of being dishonest in its editorial statements yesterday and will give a complete and final answer to the whole business. If business rivals think they can serve their own small ends by injuring the GAZETTE with the community or if anyone thinks he can get a little black-mail from the cattle association, they are mistaken all around. The Union says:

"An attack of the GAZETTE office wrote the letter to Mr. Mills which was the ostensible occasion of Mills' reply on the no-fence proposition which has received so much attention. The job was to feel the pulse over here, and if it would not cost more than the thing is worth to have an Act passed that would prevent the trespass of cattle upon the railroad lands."

Mr. Bragg, who wrote to Mr. Mills asking for his opinions on questions affecting the cattle industry, is not an attack of the GAZETTE and has not been for years. He is engaged in cattle raising 50 miles from here, and was appointed one of a committee by the cattle association to gather information as to what legislative action would be advisable or possible, and report. In that capacity he sought the opinions of men of all classes and Mr. Mills among the number, and very properly too. So far as we know he did it of his own volition and without a suggestion from anyone. Hearing from Mr. Mills that such a letter was being written, the Editor of the GAZETTE invited him to send a copy for publication which he did. Mr. Mills gave his own private opinions, as every man should have the liberty of doing, and when his attention was called to the fact that his letter was being used for black-mailing the cattle association he instantly disclaimed any idea of representing anyone but himself and giving his own views. We differ with Mr. Mills and should oppose the passage of such a law, believing that while the principle is right in the abstract and would apply to States where the land is all arable and each section capable of supporting families, that it does not apply to Nevada, where large tracts cannot be used profitably except as open ranges for cattle or sheep. As a matter of news, we will inform the papers, as they are apparently ignorant of the fact, that the cattle men understand this thoroughly and are not scared in the least by the horn-blowing that is kept up. As we said before, the proprietor of the GAZETTE was on a visit East at the time of the whole discussion, and Mr. Linn was at perfect liberty to oppose it editorially if he had thought proper to do so. He seems to have felt, however, and quite properly too, that the whole thing was a tempest in a teapot, and had no idea of its being used as a black-mail scheme. We may say in conclusion, that the Land Department of the Central Pacific has been a good friend to Nevada and has done much for the farmers and stockmen in the way of rates on grain, hay, etc. Mr. Mills has done more for Nevada during his term as Land Agent, than the mischief-making crew who abuse the railroad and stir up strife have done harm since the State started.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The Carson Tribune opposes the annexation of part of Idaho, fearing the removal of the Capital and the preponderance of the Mormon element. It favors the annexation of that part of California east of the mountains, but that California will ever consent is not believed. All the parties living there would like it, but the State at large will never consent.

"O. B.," a Silver State correspondent, says memorializing Congress for appropriations has become chronic in Nevada, and recommends that the State itself spend money under the supervision of a committee, experimenting for artesian water and storage.

Senatorial Results.

HARTFORD, Conn., January 13. The Republican legislative caucus to-day unanimously, by acclamation renominated General Hawley for United States Senator. The Republicans have a majority of 31 on joint ballot.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., January 13. Charles B. Farwell was nominated by the Republican caucus this afternoon to succeed General Logan in the United States Senate, and W. R. Morrison by the Democrats.

NASHVILLE, January 13. The Democrats of the Tennessee Legislature in caucus to-day unanimously nominated W. C. Whitthorne for the unexpired Senatorial term. One ballot was taken on the long term Senator, resulting: A. Bate, 30; ex-Governor A. Marks, 20; John F. House 10; J. L. J. Snell, 11.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 13. The Democratic Senatorial caucus was held to-night, 72 members being present. On the fourth ballot David Tarple was nominated receiving 45 votes. Ex-Senator McDonald was his principal competitor. Four Democratic Knights of Labor declined to enter the caucus, and it is not known whether they will support the nomination or not. Mr. Tarple is at present United States Attorney for Indiana.

HARRISBURG, Pa., January 13. At the caucus of Democratic legislators held yesterday, Senator Wolverton of Northumberland received the nomination for United States Senator.

Justice at Last.

RICHMOND, Va., January 14. Thos. J. Cluverius was hanged shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, without making any confession. The crime for which he suffered death, was for the murder of his cousin, Miss Fannie Lillian Madison on March 14, 1885. Miss Madison was about 22 years old, and up to the time of her death, was a teacher in Bath county. Some 200 witnesses were examined, and the evidence fixed upon the prisoner, the brand of a murderer and seducer, and at the conclusion of the trial, the jury rendered a verdict of murder in the first degree. The execution of sentence was stayed for over a year by the Supreme Court. When he was sentenced again to die, the Governor was strenuously applied to for a pardon or a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment, but he could find no reason for interfering; he however, resented the condemned man until to-day.

The Farmers' Complaint.

WASHINGTON, January 14. The Farmers' Congress has adjourned to meet in Chicago in November 1887. They resolved that the clause in the charters of National banks which forbids their loaning money on real estate works great injury to the farmers by denying them banking privileges and thus causing them to pay higher interest than any other class of citizens, and that the farmers of the United States in Congress do most respectfully, but urgently ask Congress to repeal the same.

Four Killers Hanged.

St. Louis, January 14. Albert O'Dell, James Lamb, John L. Reynolds and John Stevens were hanged at Fort Smith, Arkansas, at noon to-day, for a murder committed in Indian Territory, December 25th, 1885. O'Dell and Lamb killed a man named Edward Pollard, in Cherokee, Indian Territory, for his money, some time ago, and were considered desperate characters. Stephens-colored-murdered his companion, also colored.

An Adverse Report.

WASHINGTON, January 14. The Senate Committee on the District of Columbia, this morning ordered an adverse report on the nomination of J. C. Mathews of Albany, N. Y. the colored Register of Deeds of this District.

Determined Strikers.

SCRANTON, Pa., January 14. The discontent of striking miners, formerly in the employ of the Hillsdale Coal Co., at the Consolidated Colliery, manifested itself Wednesday morning, when the working miners, or "Black-legs," were assaulted by the strikers, as the former were returning from work to the barracks where they eat and sleep. The outbreak is so threatening that the working miners, who were guarded by a meager posse of seven men, feared for their safety, impounded the company's officials for additional protection. Yesterday, in response to the request of the working miners, Superintendent May of the Hillsdale Coal Co., employed Geo. Kell of the Coal & Iron Police of this city, to take charge of the posse. A warrant was issued for the arrest of James Ward the ring-leader of the disturbance. When the May officers arrived they were met by a howling mob of 500, who began throwing stones at them. Just then the "Black-legs" appeared and were chased into their barracks. Ward was finally arrested, and the mob rushed to the Justice's office, defying the officers to take him there. Their weight sagged the floor, and fearing the building would fall, they rushed out, when the prisoner was hurried in by the police. The Justice was intimidated, however, and discharged Ward. The mob then attacked the barracks and riddled the windows with stones. The guard seized their rifles, and the "Black-legs" rushed for their revolvers, determined to hold the fort. The assault on the barracks being continued, the order was given to fire and 20 balls sped in the direction of the mob, and the crowd turned and fled. It cannot now be ascertained whether any of the strikers were shot or not.

Still Squabbling.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 14. The only item of interest in the legislature to-day was developed in the House, where two reports in the Meagher contested election case were presented. It was determined to devote three hours to debate, the time to be equally divided between the parties, and that the vote should be taken not later than 5 o'clock.

In the injunction proceedings of Smith vs. Robertson, no further dilatory motions were made. Attorney General McHenry appeared for Robertson and occupied the forenoon in his argument, and the attorneys for Smith, will it is expected, answer this afternoon. A decision to-night is possible, but not probable.

Striking Tobacconists.

JERSEY CITY, January 14. About 2,000 hands struck work this morning at Lorillard's tobacco factory because of a proposed reduction of their wages. The remaining employees at Lorillard's tobacco works quit work this afternoon. The last to go out were the girls who put the revenue stamps on the manufactured goods. The entire force of about 3,500 employees, are now out, and the large factories are now idle. The strikers departed quietly, and there was no disorder.

No Evidence of Fraud.

LITTLE ROCK, January 14. The Star route case of the Government against J. D. C. edester and others, brought before United States Judge Caldwell on a suit to recover $170,000 claimed to have been overpaid on the mail route extending from Fort Worth Texas, to Yuma, Arizona, the jury without leaving their seats, returned a verdict for the defendant. The Court instructed the jury that there was no evidence of fraud.

The seals of office were transferred to the new members of the Cabinet and those who had changed office, and the minister kissed the Queen's hand as he formally notified them of their appointments. Gladstone has been depressed ever since he heard of the death of Lord Iddesleigh. He has caught cold and is now confined to his bed.

Advised to Let the Subject Rest.

LONDON, January 14. John Bright, in a letter declining an invitation to attend a meeting of the advocates of the federation, on the ground that he has no sympathy with the object and purposes thereof, asks the projectors of the movement how the proposed federation would deal with the fisheries dispute between Canada and the United States, if Canada were independent. He asserts that she would yield to the argument of her powerful neighbor, and if there were no Dominion of Canada the dispute would soon have been settled by an English concession of America's reasonable claim. The federation project, he said, is mainly the offspring of a jingo spirit which claims for a vast, and continually widening empire, and seems almost ready to boast that the empire can fight the world outside of its own limits. Bright says he would recommend to sensible men to let the question rest.

The Feeling in France.

PARIS, January 14. The publication of the full text of Bismarck's speeches in the Reichstag is tending to alter the tone of public opinion regarding his utterances. The Chancellor is charged with brutality, and with endeavoring to provoke a war with France. The principal result will be to strengthen Gen. Boulanger's demand for the military budget.

A Troublesome Element.

LONDON, January 13. A large number of unemployed workmen held a meeting at Norwich to-day, and after listening to the speeches of two Socialists, commenced attacks on the shops. The police dispersed the mob before they could do any damage, further than the breaking of a number of windows. The two Socialists were arrested.

Who Pets the Baby.

An Eastern exchange says: Up to the time a child can talk and say funny things, she—it is generally particularly so with female children—she is her mother's pet. Then she is taken possession of by the male parent. A little while after she is born the new made parent likes the novelty of dandling her, but that does not last long. Then for a while she is a nuisance to the father, but when she begins to get "cute" and cunning when her mother has with infinite care and affection developed her infantile brain, the father steps in and begins to monopolize the credit. It isn't fair. But the mother always lets him. When a lady tells me a story of her baby she says "our baby." But when a father talks he always begins about "my little girl," and generally says: "I have a little daughter. There was never a child yet whose best ideas were not derived from the mother. Children who have been petted by their fathers generally talk slang, which their fathers think awfully bright.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of "Boche's German Syrup" within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of coughs, colds and the severest lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary, removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctors' bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cents, large bottles. nov29

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the relatives of the deceased, and bow with humble submission to his will.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and also spread upon our minutes.

MRS. FRANK COOK, Secretary.

Reno Hopes So.

The Salt Lake Tribune says the Utah smelters are to find a strong rival in the new Reno (Nevada) Smelting, Milling and Reduction Works as the Central Pacific is playing right into their hands.

It is wise to provide against emergency cases that are liable to arise in every family. A cold may be a dangerous thing, or not, depending upon the means at hand to combat it. In sudden attacks of cold, cough, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry-Pectoral will prove the quickest and most effective cure, and your best friend.

WATER POWER MILLS.

The First on the Comstock to be Soon Erected.

The Virginia Chronicle says: The Virginia & Gold Hill Water Company purchased yesterday from Mrs. Mary J. Martin her homestead in the eastern part of the city for $1,000. The ground and improvements are located between the waste dumps of the Mint and Oblition shafts, and include, besides the homestead, 550 feet of ground running north and south, between the aforesaid dumps, together with 350 feet in the ravine, running east and west. The ground will be used as a mill site for the erection of a 40 or 60 stamp quartz mill to be constructed by the Trustees of the Chollar and Potosi mining companies, to crush ore extracted from the new development in those mines. The mill will be operated by water power, supplied through the new flume, which will be completed from Mariette lake to this city by the middle of next June. The water heretofore used to operate the hydraulic pumps at the Combination shaft, which averaged 2,000,000 gallons daily, will be utilized as an auxiliary to the power supplied through the new flume in operating the stamp mill. The projected mill is only the first of a series to be erected by the Water Company at different points in Six-mile canyon, at a sufficient distance apart to admit of catching it up again and fluming it along the hillsides until the necessary height to furnish the requisite fall or pressure is attained.
